Elizabeth Lortscher

Owner of Elizabeth's Mysterious Art, Elizabeth grew up creating works of art. As a child, she was encouraged by her father, whose profession was an art teacher, by being given paints, markers, colors and paper to make her own illustrations. Elizabeth often drew inspiration from nature, such as light, ocean wood, stones, and shells.

Elizabeth enjoys painting, making mandalas, Zen miniatures, beaded items, jewelry, dangles, and both wood and stone sculptures. She states that she has found the act of creating art to be helpful in managing stress.

Elizabeth has been working very hard with the support of her parents, Vocational Rehabilitation, and the Work Incentive Network to start her own business. She sells Paparazzi Jewelry, art activities, and gemstone screening, and sells her art at parties, fundraisers, and events such as the Wine Fest and at the Manley Art Center in Brookings.

She is very excited to announce that she now has a cargo trailer and is booking gemstone screening digs and going to various art shows in her area.
